

TONY & TINA

Children of the Lord!

A Sunday school picnic in progress.

Hi, enjoying your trip?

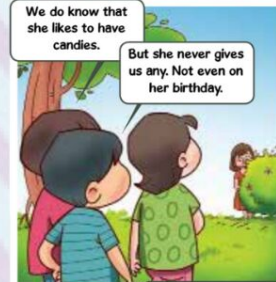

Yes, we are.

Would you like to have a candy?

Oh! So sweet of you. But no, thanks. I just had some with my friends.

But I know someone who would love to have a candy.

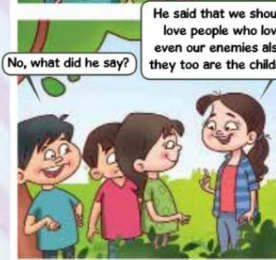

We do know that she likes to have candies.

But she never gives us any. Not even on her birthday.

She always argues and makes fun of us too!

Hmm. Now that's something. But do you know what Jesus said about this?

No, what did he say?

He said that we should not only love people who love us, but even our enemies also because they too are the children of God!

Oh! We never thought of it that way.

Don't worry. We'll make it up for all the times we were wrong. Now let's go and make a new friend.

Okay!

Hi!
